

Tuesday, April 18, 2017 at 6 PM
Lincoln Legacy Lecture
Guest Speaker: Dr. Julie Seely
Mary Dod Brown Memorial Chapel

The "LEAVES"(Lincoln Legacy, Ethics, Actions, Values, Educational Seminars)Convocation events consistently introduce our students and the campus-at-large to a multitude of distinguished Guest Lecturers to encourage intellectual stimulation, self-confidence, and career progression.

We welcome Dr. Julie Loretta Seely who is a graduate of Wellesley College and the Tufts University Medical School in Boston. Formerly trained as an Obstetrician/Gynecologist, she now consults in the field of Medical Administration. Her early writing career focused on developing educational materials for women. In 2010, she began a second career writing about the legacies of both her grandfather and father, Nathan T. Seely Jr., a 1947 "Rabble" graduate of Lincoln University.

Her fictional screenplay, Skinny House, based on true events, was shortlisted at the 2011 Gotham New York Screen and Film Festival. Her non-fictional book, Skinny House, a family biography, will debut in the summer of 2017. Upcoming projects include: a picture book for children and a musical inspired by her grandfather's story.

The program is open to the entire Lincoln University family, and will be held on Tuesday, April 18, 2017 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the Mary Dod Brown Chapel.

We will be hosting a fellowship prior to the lecture starting at approximately 5:30 p.m., heavy hors d'oeuvres will be served.

