Lincoln University's Board Chair Outlines Lincoln's Strategic Direction

Bishop David G. Evans '74
Chairman

Chairman Evans, in his report to the Board of Trustees at the September 18, 2010 meeting, has outlined the following directives and initiatives for Lincoln University:

Charge to the Administration

1. To produce graduates academically capable of entering a top 50 graduate or professional school.
2. To produce graduates professionally capable of being fast-tracked in their workplace.
3. To be ranked in the top 10 of HBCUs, academically, athletically and artistically.

Charge to the Board of Trustees

1. Make certain that the Board and Administration keep their focus on the priorities.
2. Take ownership (full Board commitment) to the following priorities:
 - a. Raise a minimum of $400,000 in Board contributions (give and get).
 - b. Raise a minimum of $1 million in alumni contributions.
3. Establish the following criteria for all new trustees:
 - a. Commitment of $10,000 per year (give and get).
 - b. Willingness to influence their network to support the University and its priorities.
 - c. Introduction of Lincoln University to potentially high-achieving students.

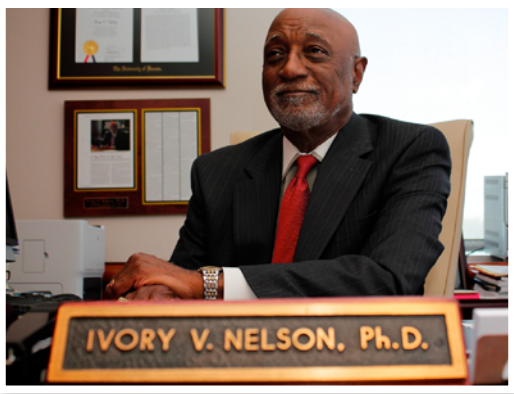

Overarching Themes

1. To embrace an academic culture that improves the University's reputation measured by teaching, research, and service, and to embrace an ethic that fosters Graduate School-Ready standards for all Lincoln students.

2. To structure and sustain an environment that provides each student with the best opportunity for his or her academic, cultural, social, physical, mental, and spiritual success.
3. To provide a mechanism to financially support the University's strategic initiatives and ensure the effective delivery of the University's operational and support services measured by both professional efficiency and customer service.
4. To manage the University's fiscal resources at a high level of fiscal accountability consistent with the newer and more stringent federal and state requirements.

Priority Focus Areas (Current Fiscal Year 2011)

- Raise a minimum of $1 million in alumni contributions.
- Raise a minimum of $400,000 in Board contributions (give and get).
- Implement an undergraduate admissions program that meets the established enrollment goals and successfully recruits a minimum of two-thirds of incoming freshmen with SAT scores of 900 and above.
- Increase freshman to sophomore retention rates to 85% by 2012.
- Increase the six-year graduation rate to 48% by 2012.
- Insure that all student support services (financial aid, security, registrar, student health services, and dining services) are run with professional efficiency and a customer service orientation.
- Position the University as the 'institution of choice' for potential investors, students, and employees.
- Establish Lincoln as an authority in urban education with established programs within the Philadelphia School District.
- Raise the Lincoln-Barnes Visual Arts Center of Excellence to a level of international recognition.
- Raise the Mass Communications Center of Excellence to a level of national recognition.
- Establish the requirement of all potential graduates to pass an exit exam to enter a graduate or professional program.

Message from the Office of the President

President Ivory V. Nelson has dedicated his message to answering the questions and concerns of the alumni and student body. Below are questions that were fielded to the president for his response. If your question was not answered in this edition, it will be answered in our next publication. Thank you for your cooperation.

1. How can I help the school identify and obtain more students from the Detroit Metropolitan Area? - Ronald Butler '65

We appreciate your willingness to assist your alma mater in recruiting students from your area. The Office of Undergraduate Admissions is always looking for alumni recruiters who are available to take a proactive approach with our recruitment efforts. We are able to send you recruitment materials and train you, if interested. You can contact our admissions office at 484-365-7206 for more information on becoming an alumni recruiter. In the meantime, be sure to direct any interested students to our website: www.lincoln.edu.

2. Is Lincoln University's MHS Program accredited? If so, by what accrediting body? - Lorenzo A. Woodson '09

Yes, the Lincoln University Master of Human Services (MHS) Program is fully accredited and designated as a performance-based master's degree in human services. The MHS Program is accredited by the Middle States Association, which oversees the accreditation of all baccalaureate and master's degrees offered at Lincoln University of Pennsylvania. Please do not hesitate to contact Dr. James Wadley, MHS director, at 215.590.8201 or jwadley@lincoln.edu for more information on our program.

3. When will PA alumni be able to express their love for Lincoln University and also show others that we are the first HBCU? We should have a PA state license plate that is available through the Department of Transportation. Is this something that is possible? - Pastor Sidney L. Sims Class of '92

This is definitely possible. The Director of Alumni Relations, Ms. Theresa Braswell is currently campaigning for alumni to get on board with this project. We simply need 300 alumni to commit to purchasing a license plate. The fee is $50, half of which will be contributed to Lincoln University. The amount is subject to change, depending on when we get a commitment from a total of 300 alumni.

4. Would LU ever consider constructing a hotel on campus and starting a new major in hotel administration? - Charles E. Stewart II '89

This is highly probable. We have discussed and considered a hospitality management major within the Business and Information Technology Center of Excellence. This potential major should be introduced within the next five years.

5. Some of the alumni want to better understand the details of the Barnes Collection transaction. Did Lincoln University totally relinquish control over the collection? - Shelah Harper '76

Lincoln University was never given, or in control of, the Barnes Collection. The relationship between the Barnes Foundation and Lincoln University stated specifically in the Barnes Will was, "Lincoln University could nominate four of the five Board Members for the Barnes Foundation Board." Once the Board members were seated, they had no particular allegiance to Lincoln University. In addition, Lincoln University has never had any financial interest in the Barnes Collection. The University now nominates five members to the expanded 15-member Barnes Foundation Board.

From Student Poll

6. What legacy do you wish to leave?

My legacy will be defined by others who will review what happened at the University during my tenure. My priority during my tenure was to do all those things necessary to foster an outstanding social, physical and academic environment that would promote the deliverance of a high quality education, which would give every person graduating from Lincoln University the opportunity to participate at their maximum potential in the American Dream.

7. What responsibility do I have as a student to better the reputation of Lincoln University?

Your responsibility to Lincoln University is to conduct yourself in a manner that will always project you as a person who is willing to lead, take on the difficult issues, make positive changes in the society and your surroundings, and having the strength of character to do this with humility, love and fervor. Additionally, your responsibility as a student is to take advantage of the academic and social opportunities available to you at the university; prepare yourself and commit yourself to be a dedicated individual to make the world a better place.

Ivory V. Nelson, Ph.D.

Message from the Director of Alumni Relations

Theresa R. Braswell '84

DEAR LU FAMILY AND FRIENDS,

It's that time of the year again! The Homecoming season is here and we are excited about welcoming you back home.

We have a diverse schedule of activities planned to help you re-live your Lincoln school days.

I am also excited about sharing with you some of the goals that we have established for this great institution for the 2011 Fiscal Year:

- I. Raise a minimum of $1 million in alumni contributions.
- II. Increase the percentage of alumni contributors to 25%.
- III. Secure 500 new students from alumni connections and activities.

The progress of the goals that were outlined in our Spring Edition is as follows:

- I. We have established Friends of Lincoln University worldwide and have hosted alumni events thus far in Durham, NC, Atlanta, GA, Charlotte, NC, New York, NY, Philadelphia, PA and Washington, D.C. We are in the process of planning for other areas also. The Inaugural Lions at Sea Alumni & Friends Fundraising Cruise is scheduled for Friday, July 1, 2011 to Monday, July 4, 2011. The Carnival Imagination cruise is a three-day Bahamas cruise from Miami, FL. Our Floridian and Bahamian Lions will be hosting this event. The cost for ocean view is starting at $495 and interior at $465. Carnival will make a matching gift for each of our cabins.

- II. We are very close to securing the required signatures of alumni and friends to obtain our LU pride specialty plates. The initial states that will be available are Pennsylvania, Maryland, District of Columbia and Delaware. The current cost of the plate is $50. Each jurisdiction will donate $25 per plate to Lincoln.

- III. Many alumni have joined the "It Takes a Village" automatic monthly contribution to LU program. This program has been crucial to helping us increase the percentage of alumni giving, but we still need more alumni to participate to ensure the continued growth of our alma mater. The current participant's monthly donation ranges from $10 - $300. Please go to www.lincoln.edu and click on the "Donate Now" button to enroll today.

- IV. We are continuously developing strategic alumni partnerships.

Please feel free to contact me at tbraswell@lincoln.edu should you have any questions, concerns or fundraising ideas/activities that you would like to lead.

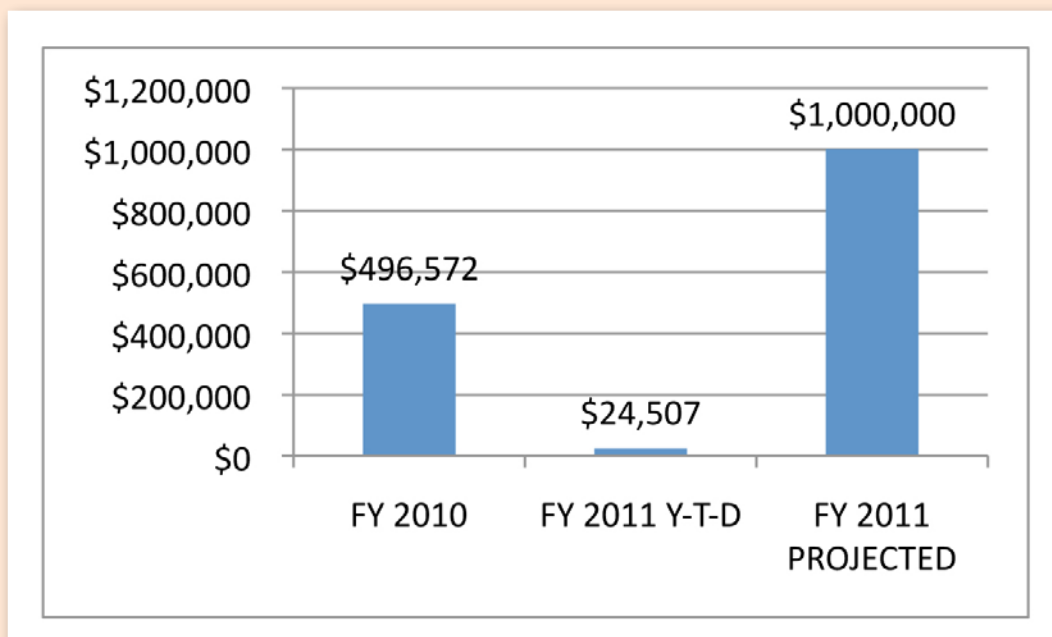

Thank you for your continued support.

Hail...Hail...Lincoln!!!!.....Roaaaaaarr!!!!

In the Spirit of LU Love,

Theresa (Tee) Braswell '84

Annual Alumni Gifts as of September 30, 2010

From the Desk of the Executive Secretary of the Alumni Association

Bruce M. Benson '75

In October 1992, I took over this auspicious position of executive secretary under the tutelage of the late Dr. H. Alfred Farrell. Prior to my coming on board as executive secretary, I served as vice president East of the Lincoln University Alumni Association. I am still glad to be serving in a position that moves this association forward into the present century. Dr. Farrell held this position for over 33 years.

and in-kind. We also need you to continue supporting the Alumni Association so our interests can be heard and presented to the University administration for action.

This is a very important election year for the Alumni Association. The national offices of president, vice president, area directors of the East, South, Central, West, treasurer and two alumni trustee positions are up for election.

Please send your nominations for any of the named offices to the executive secretary via e-mail or U.S. mail, so the names can be submitted to the Nominating Committee.

The Association still needs the support of all alumni by paying annual dues of $35.00. Our dues fund all of our programs. The Association is here to service the needs of its members. Please join me, and the officers of the Alumni Association the weekend of October 29-31, to celebrate Homecoming 2010.

In conclusion, it is with great pleasure that I serve as the executive secretary of this auspicious organization. I have met many friends over the years serving in this position of honor.

Join me in continued support of our alma mater and I will always remain, constant and true.

Bruce M. Benson '75

As I reflect on my tenure, I am amazed at the progress that has been made over the years both at Lincoln and with the Association. I can still feel the presence of the late greats, "Jazz" Bryd '25, Bishop Quinton Primo '34, Earl O. Pree '34, Dr. Frank "Tick" Coleman '35, and many others extolling the greatness of a Lincoln education and how they were molded into men and professionals, as students that roamed this beautiful campus.

Now it is our turn, Lincoln needs alumni support as the University competes for top-notch students, faculty and staff. We compete for funds from corporations and other philanthropists to bring the latest technology and students to fill our classrooms. As we compete in the fields of technology, the sciences, human resources, and athletics, Lincoln needs alumni committed to keeping this legacy going. Without continued support, we will not be able to continue our progressive growth.

This homecoming season is a chance for all alumni to get involved with some aspect of the University. We need your support financially, spiritually

John Hill Named as Lincoln's Head Men's Basketball Coach

John Hill

Lincoln University is pleased to announce John Hill as the new head men's basketball coach. Boasting seven years of Division II head-coaching experience and another 13 seasons as an assistant, Hill has an established ability to build programs into conference and national contenders.

From 1998-2005, Hill served as head coach at two separate CIAA institutions and earned the distinction of being a rigorous recruiter that demanded character both athletically and academically.

Following that successful venture into women's basketball, Hill took the head men's basketball position at Virginia State University for the 2002-2003 season. Hill's team defeated five ranked teams in addition to Shaw including Pfeiffer College (No. 7 nationally) and Queens College (No. 1 in the Northeast Region) in 2004-05. Having found the necessary formula for turning struggling programs into perennial winners while at Saint Paul's and Virginia State, Hill became the ideal candidate for the position at Lincoln.

"Lincoln University is in an ideal basketball location to recruit from metropolitan areas spanning from New York to Washington, D.C. within a two-hour radius," Hill said. "No other CIAA school has that ability."

Two of Hill's Saint Paul's College teams won the CIAA Team Academic Award and the NCAA honored the other.

"I recognize as a leader, I have an obligation to explore all resources that will enhance the academic achievement of each student-athlete," he said. "It is vital to generate a program atmosphere that fosters a winning attitude toward graduating and competing successfully in athletics."

Hill holds a Bachelor of Science in sociology and psychology from Greensboro College and a Master of Science in sports management from the California University of Pennsylvania. He is currently a member of the National Association of Basketball Coaches, the Black Coaches Association and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

As the architect of the memorable women's basketball team at Saint Paul's College, he spearheaded the Lady Tigers development from a 2-22 team in his first year in 1998-99 to one that never dipped below .500, finishing the next year at 15-11 and at 17-9 in the 2000-2001 season.

Snapshots of the Summer

“Since I was able, it was the right thing to do; to help provide an education for those who attend my alma mater.” – Carl Dickerson '60

On Lincoln University's Founder's Day Weekend, Dickerson took a flight from Los Angeles to his beloved alma mater to personally make a $100,000.00 donation.

On May 2, 2010, Lincoln University graduated 486 graduate and undergraduate students at the 151st Commencement Ceremony. Honorary degrees were given to Dr. William Bennett '50, Congressman Chaka Fattah, and Robert Bogle.

2010 Graduates

Dr. Ivory V. Nelson and administrators welcome the class of 2014.
