March 13: SAP Day

SAP, one of the largest business software companies in the world, will host SAP Day on Wednesday, March 13. SAP will provide general information, demonstrations, networking, and on-the-spot interviews. SAP hires forward-thinking professionals who think differently and push businesses to do things simpler, faster, smarter, and more sustainably. Whether joining SAP as an intern or a new grad, they'll happily invest in career growth to start Lincoln students on an amazing journey at SAP.

Sexual Violence Prevention and Education: NO MORE Campaign

1 in 4 women and 1 in 6 men were sexually abused before the age of 18. Silence and lack of knowledge about domestic violence and sexual assault play a large part in why they persist. Simply wanting to help is a huge step toward ending the shame and stigma that survivors are burdened with. Learn how to recognize DV/SA, what to do when you see it and how to stop it before it happens. Together we can "Protect the Pride" and say "NO MORE" to acts of sexual violence.
